

KALIBEL®

Kalibel is created by bonding gypsum panel and stonewool to make them composite. In addition to thermal insulation, it is primarily used in applications of internal insulation applications of buildings where sound insulation is required. It is fixed after applying adhesive plaster mortar on the wall. In order for Warm Kalibel to serve for many years, the quality of the products used in its production is not compromised.

